

A portrait of Michele Legge, a woman with short brown hair, smiling. She is wearing a blue patterned blazer over a dark top and a necklace. The background is a window with a white lattice pattern.

Michele Legge

Michele Legge has been in the advertising business for over 25 years. After working in all aspects of advertising, she opened Magnolia Heights Marketing in 2008. Magnolia Heights Marketing is a full service advertising agency that specializes in customized strategic marketing plans for small to medium size businesses.

Every business is different and each has their own goals and objectives, their own obstacles and their own story. No two businesses are alike. Whether working on an entire advertising campaign, social media campaigns or just on a particular project, Magnolia Heights Marketing works in tandem with their clients to achieve their fullest potential.

“Businesses have limited advertising funds. At Magnolia Heights Marketing we want those funds to go to their advertising and not retainer fees.”

Magnolia Heights Marketing has clients all over the world, but likes to deal with local businesses the most.

Michele is active in the community and is very involved with the Colonial Park Rotary Club where she served as the first woman President for the 2012-2013 year. She serves on various committees for her club, most important to her, is the Norman Hetrick Golf Tournament that raises money for local scholarships to Harrisburg Area Community College. She is also a member of the National Association of Professional Women. She graduated from Shippensburg University with a Bachelor's Degree in Communications/Journalism: Public Relations.

In addition to spending time with her family, Michele enjoys reading, traveling, shopping and living life to its fullest!

2604 Magnolia Terrace • Harrisburg, PA 17110
717-829-5260 • F: 717-525-8873